

WEDDING BELLS IN OLD VIRGINIA

Consul-General Kent to Take a Bride With Him to Guatemala.

WERE WEDDED IN STAUNTON

Trinity Episcopal Church the Scene of a Beautiful Ceremony.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, Va., August 25.—A very important society wedding, which has been looked forward to for some time, took place this morning at Trinity Episcopal Church, when at 10 o'clock Miss Annie Hendon Patrick, of Staunton, was married to Captain William P. Kent, of Wytheville, Consul-General to Guatemala. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. C. Hulton, pastor, and the marriage was an exceedingly quiet one, there being only a few near relatives present. Miss Mary Arbuckle, of Staunton, was maid of honor, and Mr. Claude Kent acted as best man. Mr. Peyton Crookran and Mr. Joseph Kent were the ushers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Kent left on the eastbound Chesapeake and Ohio train for Guatemala, to which place Mr. Kent has recently been appointed consul-general. The bride was attired in a beautiful brown traveling dress.

The bride is one of Staunton's most popular society ladies, and a daughter of Mr. William Patrick, a prominent member of the Staunton bar. She is a member of one of the oldest and most distinguished Virginia families and a granddaughter of Judge John N. Hendon, of Seelye, Augusta county. She is also related to the well-known families of the Browns, Peytons, Baldwins, her mother being Miss Annie Hendon.

She is a graduate of the Mary Baldwin Seminary, of this city.

ELEGANT WEDDING.

Miss Anne Keiningham the Bride of E. H. Conway.

SPOTSVYLD, Va., August 25.—"Prospect Hill," the historic home of generations of Holladays, was the scene last Wednesday of a wedding ceremony of more than usual interest and beauty. The bride, Miss Anne Isabelle Keiningham, is distinguished for forceful character and rare personal beauty; the groom, Edward Henry Conway, is the gifted and popular son of Richard Moncreux Conway, former consul to Port Hope, Canada, and a nephew of J. D. Conway, late Fredricksburg banker and of Moncreux D. Conway, an author of international fame.

The broad hall of the old Virginia home had been transformed into a bower of trailing greenery, and banked with ferns, and over the bridal arch was a sunburst of goldenrod.

The bride, a "rosy blonde," was at her winsome best in white silk and lace over white tulle, carrying a bouquet of August lilies and maidenhair fern. The maid of honor, Bernice Holladay Keiningham, a sister of the bride, wore white mull and carried goldenrod, while the white-gowned bridesmaids, Mary Littlepage Conway, Catherine Constance Conway, Sadie Keiningham, and Lenora Kean, carried feathery masses of maidenhair fern.

Raleigh Travers Daniel Conway, a brother of the groom, was best man, and Richard Eustace Conway, Lewis Holladay, Frank and John Harris, were ushers.

The bride entered the hall to the strains of the Lohengrin march, and left the altar to those of Mendelssohn's, both expressively rendered by Nellie Keen. During the ceremony, which was improvised and solemnized according to the rites of the Episcopal Church, by the Rev. H. P. R. McCoy, "Love's Old Sweet Song" was softly played by Nannie Elizabeth Scott, principal of the well-known Belair School for Girls, of which the bride is a graduate.

After a brief trip, Mr. and Mrs. Conway will return to Conway, the home of the groom, for a visit of several weeks.

On the evening preceding the wedding day, a rehearsal was held, after which dainty refreshments were served to the bridesmaids and house-party by the charming hostess, Mrs. John Waller Holladay. The dining hall, with its wealth of rare old imported family china, was prettily decorated in white and green. The cordial interest felt in the happy event by the many friends of bride and groom was evinced in the tasteful and appropriate character of the wedding gifts and in the presence of a host of guests whose hearty good wishes are an earnest of happiness to both.

CARPENTER KILLED BY SHIFTING ENGINE

LYNCHBURG, Va., August 25.—C. Kellerman, Lynchburg, N. Y., a carpenter, who has been here for the past six months, was killed here early this morning at the Union passenger station by a Norfolk and Western shifting engine. The engine started to move a postal car, when the brakeman was attracted by a noise under the car. The engine was stopped, and the man was found horribly crushed, and died twenty minutes later.

It is believed that Kellerman was sleeping on the truck of the car, which was standing in the yard, and the car caused by the coupling of the shifter, or that caused by the starting of the car threw him.

Kellerman was a member of the Thence Carpenters' Union. He has a brother, Rev. J. A. Kellerman, living at Scranton, Pa. His remains are being held here for shipment.

FATAL MISTAKES

Think of a simple mistake in a name costing tens of thousands of lives per year. But it is a fact.

Every third or fourth person will admit "a little kidney trouble." We are suddenly waking up to the fact that the deaths from this cause are over 80,000 per year, and that it is Bright's Disease. Dr. Loomis, of Bellevue Hospital, declares nine-tenths of people over 40 have some form of Bright's Disease, and the Health Commissioner of Chicago, in October, 1904, showed that six per cent. of the adult youth of that city have it.

And the census shows that out of 68,613 deaths from kidney trouble in the year 1900, 55,748, over nine-tenths, were due to Bright's Disease.

What is to be done?

Simply this: no matter how mild your kidney trouble is, to be safe, treat it at once as Bright's Disease.

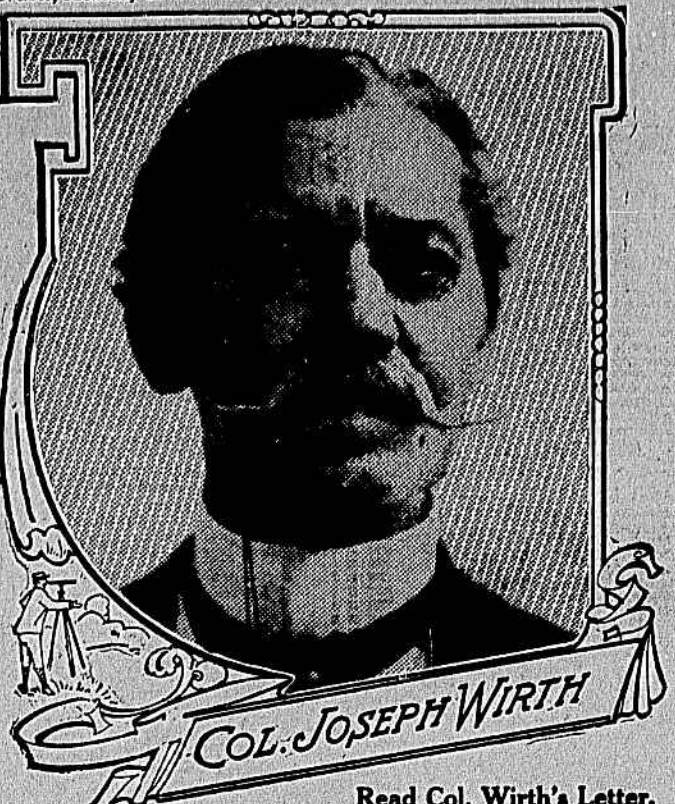

There is only one specific known, viz., FULTON'S REMEDY FOR BRIGHT'S DISEASE. Recovery is almost certain, nearly nine-tenths recovering. Ask for FULTON'S REMEDY, which includes no cases except those that were proved to be incurable. This booklet is for thoughtful people.

COL. WIRTH

CIVIL ENGINEER AND INVENTOR

Was Formerly on the Staff of Gen. Jas. Wilson of the U. S. Army as Chief Topographical Engineer With the Rank of Colonel During the War of the Rebellion, and Engineer on the Various Railroads in Brazil, Mexico, Central America and South American States.

Read Col. Wirth's Letter.

"Having the fullest confidence in the excellence of Peru-na as a tonic and as a remedy for catarrhal troubles, as I can testify by my family's successful use of it, I have no hesitation in recommending the same to the public in general."—Joseph Wirth.

(1818 G St., N. W., Washington, D. C.)

IT IS the confidence of the people in Peru-na that sells Peru-na.

No advertising can make any medicine as popular as Peru-na has become, unless the medicine has some intrinsic value.

All over the land men and women are recommending Peru-na to each other. They are doing this in spite of the prejudices against patent medicines, in spite of the physicians to the contrary.

PERU-NA IS SUCCESSFUL.

Rev. G. W. Goode, 219 Ross Street, Danville, Va., writes:
"Your treatment for catarrh has proved a success, and I find myself as well as before. There are no visible signs of the catarrh now. I can honestly recommend your treatment to all like sufferers."

"I took six or eight bottles of Peru-na, according to advice. I think the cure is permanent, as I have taken no Peru-na for more than a month."

GREAT THRONG AT BRYAN RECEPTION

Indications Now That Reception in New York Will Reach Mammoth Proportions.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, August 25.—At the headquarters of the Bryan Reception Committee, at the Hotel Victoria, it was stated to-day that crowds of visitors from other States to this city to attend the reception to Mr. Bryan on August 30th will reach mammoth proportions.

State Senator David Nelson, of St. Louis, was in town to-day, making arrangements to lodge at the Saratoga Hotel a delegation of 250 members from the St. Louis Democratic Club. A still larger delegation is to come from the Jefferson Club of St. Louis.

Senator Nelson said that Missouri, to a large extent, "is going to empty itself into New York by next Thursday."

Joseph Daniel, the Democratic national committeeman from North Carolina, wrote the committee that a delegation of 150 will come from North Carolina, including the Governor, his staff, both United States Senators and eight members of the House of Representatives.

Governor Warfield, of Maryland, and his staff will arrive Tuesday. Their headquarters will be at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Governor Folk, of Missouri, the chairman of the Reception Committee, will be here Wednesday, and will put up at the Gotham.

The Governors of all the Southern States except Florida will be here. The Governor of Florida is kept away by a campaign now in progress, but the State will be represented by the attorney-general, two judges of the Supreme Court and other officials.

The National Democratic Club and the Manhattan Club, and various clubs composed of former residents of various States, expect to entertain many of the distinguished guests.

COMMISSION DECIDES IN VIRGINIA CASES

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, August 25.—In a decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission rendered by Commissioner Clements in the case of the Furrar Lumber Company against the Southern Railway Company and the Norfolk and Western Railway Company upon complaint that the lumber rates from Baton Rouge, La., to points in Virginia, the Norfolk and Western lines between Bristol, Tenn., and Roanoke, Va., and between Bluefield, W. Va., and Lynchburg, Va., were advanced in 1901 and 1902, are unreasonable and unduly discriminatory, and also in violation of the long and short haul clauses of the interstate commerce law, the commission denies reparation because of insufficient proof. In a similar decision, in the case of the Furrar Lumber Company against the Southern Railway Company and other carriers, the commission holds that there has been no wrongful discrimination resulting from the existing adjustment of rates.

LYNCHING SHERIFF TO BE PROSECUTED

(By Associated Press.)
COLUMBIA, S. C., August 25.—Acting upon testimony adduced at the coroner's inquest into the death of William Spain, the negro who was lynched at St. George on Thursday last, Governor Heyward to-day ordered the indictment and prosecution of Sheriff Littlehouse, of Dorchester county. It is charged that the official surrendered the negro into the hands of a mob without proper authority or any effort to give him protection.

When a medicine has once made a cure in a family, no persuasion or argument can overcome the confidence which such an experience inspires.

After a man or woman has tried many remedies, has consulted many doctors, (and still the disease lingers), and then has turned to Peru-na as a last resort and realized immediate benefit and finally a lasting cure—after such a thing has happened, a lasting faith in the virtue of the remedy is the result.

It ought to be so, too. The reputation of Peru-na is built upon a solid foundation of public confidence.

People have tried it, been relieved by it and believe in it. This and this alone explains the universal popularity of Peru-na as a family medicine.

RECOMMENDS PERU-NA.

Mr. Chas. P. Bartholomew, 159 Halsey Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"I take pleasure in recommending Peru-na to any and all sufferers."

WOMAN ARRESTED FOR FORGERIES

Was on Way to Visit Husband in Tombs, When She Was Put
There Herself.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, August 25.—Mrs. Irene Brown, alias McCarthy, was arrested to-day as she was about to enter the Tombs prison to visit her husband, Thomas McCarthy, who is a prisoner.

Mrs. Brown is charged with uttering a forged check for $250 on May 9th last, drawn on the Knickerbocker Trust Company, made payable to Catherine Brown, and bearing the supposed signature of George M. Cohan, the actor.

Assistant District Attorney Lockwood said the $250 check mentioned in the complaint was only one of a series of forged checks, amounting in all to $2,150. The forger, it is said, secured Mr. Cohan's signature from a simile of a check printed in a newspaper which Mr. Cohan had sent west for the San Francisco earthquake sufferers.

Mrs. Brown is nineteen years old. Her husband is held in $500 bail on charges that he is one of the principals in several forgeries perpetrated against a trust company. When McCarthy was arraigned he gave the name of Murray.

Thomas V. Schaad, a former employee of the Bank of New York, was implicated in the forgery. Schaad confessed. Pinkerton officials claim the men under arrest with confederates planned to loot the Bank of New York of $250,000.

Personals and Briefs.

Miss Pelouze and party will leave the middle of September for a trip to Niagara Falls, Toronto, Buffalo and Philadelphia.

Miss Bessie Lanier, of Petersburg, Va., and Miss Lucile Johnson, of Richmond, will sail Monday via the Old Dominion line for an extended visit to New York City and vicinity.

Mr. Robert S. Wherry, who has been sick for the past three weeks with fever, expects to be out again in a few days.

Mr. T. C. Wingfield and son, Elisha A. Wingfield, who have for the last two weeks been on a visit to relatives in Virginia, are returning to their home in Kentucky to-day. Mr. Wingfield left Richmond a mere boy, in 1867, and this is the first time he has returned from a delightful trip to Asheville, N. C., where he went to join a party of relatives from Leno, Va.

At the morning services of Grace Street Baptist Church, Mr. C. J. Boyd will sing as a solo "In the Palace of the King" by Julian Jordan. Violin obligato by Mr. Robert S. Phifer.

Mrs. W. M. A. Harwood has just returned from a delightful trip to Asheville, N. C., where she went to join a party of relatives from Leno, Va.

Mrs. M. D. Chambliss and daughter are spending some time at Beach Park.

Miss Glad A. Harwood has just returned to the city after a delightful visit of two weeks at Covington, Va.

The many friends of Mr. M. V. Butler will be glad to know that he will soon be out, after his severe attack of appendicitis.

Fatally Injured.

(By Associated Press.)
ROANOKE, Va., August 25.—At Radford, Va., to-day Dr. John W. Farmer, an old physician and resident of that place, was fatally injured by a wagon load of lumber being overturned on him. He was removed to a hospital, where he died later.

QUERIES AND ...ANSWERS

To Remove Varnish.

Please tell me how to remove a very sticky varnish stain from a wooden floor. HOUSEKEEPER.

Spirits of turpentine ought to do it.

Legal Notes.

Please answer through the query column in The Weekly Times-Dispatch if a note is legal that does not bear interest, and oblige.

A SUBSCRIBER.

Yes, if otherwise in proper form.

Ink Stains.

Please state in your Query Column of Sunday's paper what will take ink stains out of a mahogany table, so it can be varnished without showing.

CONSTANT READER.

Rub with pulverized pumice-stone and linseed oil until stain is removed, then varnish.

The Tidewater Road.

Please answer in your Query Column of the Weekly Times-Dispatch: Give name of chief engineer of Tidewater Railroad and address, and greatly oblige.

C. E.

Raymond Dupuy, Norfolk, Va.

An Editor's Height.

Please answer through the Sunday Times-Dispatch whether John Temple Graves, of Atlanta, Ga., is six feet tall; and if so, how much over six feet is he?

A SUBSCRIBER.

John Temple Graves is not six feet tall. His height is about five feet ten inches.

Mushrooms.

I am anxious to get some information about mushroom culture. Will you please give me some points in the Query Column of The Times-Dispatch?

SUBSCRIBER.

Mushroom culture is too large a subject to be discussed in these columns, but by writing to the United States Department of Agriculture for farmers' bulletin No. 53, "How to Grow Mushrooms," you can get the desired information.

A Question of Etiquette.

Will you kindly answer the following questions in your issue of next Sunday? Is this good form: Rev. Mr. — may I present to you my sister, Miss Mary —?

AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.

Ordinarily, the gentleman is presented to the lady. But, in the case of a young woman and a venerable man, notably a venerable preacher, or a man of official prominence, the lady may be presented to the man.

Privil is given in the Century Dictionary both as adjective and verb, but it is unusual.

Roger A. Pryor.

(1) Please state in query column of Weekly Times-Dispatch your ad. rates. (2) Please also state whether or not General Roger A. Pryor, formerly judge of New York city, was a native of Virginia. Please also state his father's name, and oblige.

READER.

(1) You can get rates by writing to The Times-Dispatch.

(2) Judge Roger Atkinson Pryor was born in Dinwiddie county, Va., July 19, 1828. His father was Rev. Theodorick Bland Pryor. Present address, No. 3 West Sixty-ninth Street, New York city.

City Election in 1909.

Could you in Sunday's issue give the names of the candidates that run on both tickets for City Council for Jefferson Ward at the election that took place in 1909, just previous to the breaking of the ballot-box? By so doing you will greatly oblige.

AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.

The Richmond Dispatch of January 1, 1900, concerning the uncertainty of municipal appointments, says:

"The changes in the city government during the year just drawn to a close have been as numerous owing to the interference of the military that few persons know who are now filling all the offices."

"Governor Walker," says Harper's Compend, "appointed City Council, 15th March, 1870, under enabling act: John H. Greener, John M. Higgins, C. Zimmer, Charles E. Whitlock, William H. Scott."

From this, it appears there had been no previous election of the City Council by the votes of the people.

The candidates named and elected to represent Jefferson Ward, May 28, 1870, were: John M. Higgins, John H. Greener, Samuel G. Flournoy, James C. Smith, Luke Harvey—all Conservatives. Their Republican opponents were: D. von Groning, James Murphy, John Kelly, John Viles—as published a few days before the election.

The Burial of Latane.

A poem purporting to have been written by John R. Thompson on the "Burial of Latane" accidentally found its way into this department last week. Mr. Thompson's poem is as follows:

THE BURIAL OF LATANE.

The combat raged not long, but ours the day:
And through the hosts that compassed us around
Our little band rode proudly on its way,
Leaving one gallant comrade glory crowned,
Single of all his men amid the hostile slain.

One moment on the battle's edge he stood,
Hopes halo like a helmet round his hair,
The next he beheld him dabbled in his blood,
Prostrate in death, and yet in death

how fair;
Even thus he passed through the red gate
Of earth, and came to the life beyond.

From earthly crowns and palms to an immortal life.

A brother bore his body from the field
And gave it into strangers' hands, that closed
The calm blue eyes, on earth forever sealed,
And tenderly the slender limbs compacted;

Strangers, yet sisters who, with Mary's love,
Stood by the open tomb and weeping looked above.

A little child strowed roses on his bier,
Pale roses, not more stainless than his soul,
Nor yet more fragrant than his life sincere.

That blossomed with good actions, brief but whole;
The aged matron and the faithful slave
Approached with reverent feet the hero's lowly grave.

No man of God might read the burial rite
Above the rebel, thus declared the foe
That blanch'd before him in the deadly fight;
But woman's voice in accents soft and low,
Trembling with pity, touched with pathetic read
Over this hallowed dust the ritual for the dead.

'Tis down in weakness, 'tis raised in power,
Botfly the promise floated on the air,
